PICNIC PLANNED

The Antique Auto Club and the Minnesota Transportation Museum will have a joint meeting on Sunday, July 21, 1968, at the museum's Minnehaha Depot. The Minnesota Transportation Museum will have the depot open for inspection and tours throughout the entire afternoon, as is the custom during the summer season, and the Antique Auto Clubs members will be arriving in their restored automobiles. A picnic lunch is planned for 12:00 noon, followed by inspections of the exhibits of the two organizations. The public is, of course, invited to attend, and all MTM members are invited to pack a picnic lunch, bring the family, and spend a few enjoyable hours with the membership of the Antique Auto Club. The Antique Auto Club is an organization with similar interests to our own, and a joint meeting with an exchange of ideas and experiences should be enjoyable and educational for everyone who attends.

DUES DUE

by Bill Luke
MTM Treasurer

Dues from memberships presently is the major source of income for our Minnesota Transportation Museum. When you receive your notice announcing that your membership dues have expired please send your remittance promptly. Three weeks ago about twenty renewal notifications were sent out and to date not one remittance has been received. We also have several members who are more than two months delinquent. These persons have not responded to two and three notices. Your cooperation in remitting promptly is solicited.

The "MTM Newsletter" is published by the Minnesota Transportation Museum. For membership information, please contact: Russell L. Olson, Secretary, Minnesota Transportation Museum, 8212 Sheridan Avenue South, Bloomington, Minnesota 55431.
